

Steve Down Short Bio

Steve Down is an entrepreneur, author, and founder of Causeism, a new economic philosophy that integrates profit and purpose through business. He is the author of five books on wealth and financial education and has spoken internationally across four continents. Steve is the founder of Financially Fit, Cause Vision, and The Goat Foundation, and is focused on building systems that connect economic success with meaningful impact.